Film & TV Crew

After having relocated to Hungary, I'm eager to hit the ground running and settle in the Film and TV industry after a successful couple years working with some of the UK's finest. With experience developing my own pilots for multiple TV style shows, I'm hoping to get a view into a professional, high-budget workspace. I'm quick to pick up new skills and learn on the go. Full of ideas, keen to develop them from scratch and work on it with a team.
